QUEEN EMMA BALLET

General Information and Policies

Classes, under the direction of Eve Walstrum and Suzanne Rowland strive to nurture a love for dance and movement while training the body in classical ballet technique appropriate to each student's development. The opportunity to perform in productions and other events are also scheduled. Classes are offered to girls and boys, age four and up as well as adults. Students are placed according to age and ability.

ATTENDANCE: As ballet is both a physical discipline and an art form, regular attendance is of the utmost importance. Missed classes, whether due to illness or holidays, may be made up during the current session. Please notify the school or instructor in case of absences and to arrange a make-up time. Please be prompt. Students arriving late may be asked to watch rather than participate. Parents and family may watch class on Open House days. Instructor's welcome questions regarding a student's progress and enjoy the opportunity to speak with parents but as class time is limited, please call if possible. Phone numbers may be obtained by calling the school office at 735-6553.

CONDUCT: All students must be in certifiably good health and able to fully participate in class activities. Students are expected to conduct themselves appropriately so that a positive environment for learning is maintained in the studio. Gum chewing, sitting, unnecessary talking or disruptive behavior is considered inappropriate and may result in a student being asked to leave class. No food or drinks are allowed to be consumed in the studio, dressing room or office. Students are expected to keep the studio and waiting area free of litter.

DRESS CODE: Keikidance and Pre-ballet, ponytail, braids or a bun, pink leotards, pink leather ballet slippers. Tights and skirts optional. Ballet 1 and higher, hair in a bun, pink tights, pink leather ballet slippers and correct leotard color: Ballet 1: Light Blue, Ballet 2 Royal Blue, Ballet 3 Burgundy, Ballet 4 Red or black. No skirts allowed in Ballet 1-3. Boys: Black or White ballet slippers, T-shirts tucked into shorts. Step-N-Up Hawaii (University Square, ph. 941-7837) has the best selection of dance attire.

TUITION: Tuition is paid in advance unless other arrangements are made. There is a processing fee of $10 for any returned checks and refunds are allowed only in case of prolonged illness. Tuition waivers are available for male students.
